Welcome

SPEND TIME AT THE APPARITION CHAPEL

The Apparition Chapel encloses the original gable wall of the Parish Church. Pilgrims can visit the very spot where the Apparition was witnessed in 1879. The Chapel is quiet and peaceful and provides a space for reflective prayer and contemplation.

The brilliant white Carrara marble carvings are a representation, in statue form, of what the Witnesses saw on that night: Our Lady, St. Joseph to her right, St. John the Evangelist to her left and the Lamb at the centre of the scene. This central element of the Lamb is not to be found in any other recognised Marian Apparition. In March 2021, Knock Shrine was honoured to be officially recognised as an International Eucharistic and Marian Shrine by Pope Francis, through the Pontifical Council for New Evangelisation.

THE TRADITIONAL STATIONS AT KNOCK SHRINE

The traditional Stations at Knock Shrine have been undertaken by pilgrims since the earliest days, reflecting the ancient Irish tradition of 'praying the rounds' at holy places.

This includes praying the Rosary, a visit to the Blessed Sacrament in any of the Chapels and following the Stations of the Cross. These can be performed outside, near the Shrine or on Calvary Hill, weather permitting. In wet weather they may be performed in the Parish Church or in the Basilica, where you can reflect on the beautiful Stations of the Cross oil paintings by Ger Sweeney.

THE APPARITION MOSAIC

The Apparition mosaic at Knock Basilica is a truly magnificent representation of the evening of the 21st of August 1879. The vivid richness of over 1.5 million individual pieces of coloured glass combines in unison to give us a sense of the wonder and awe that the people of the village must have felt as they gazed at the heavenly vision before them.

The mosaic is based on an artistic representation of the Apparition by Irish illustrator, PJ Lynch and crafted by Trivisanutto Mosaics in Spilimbergo, Italy.

THE CHAPEL OF RECONCILIATION

The Shrine at Knock is above all else a place of healing where countless pilgrims have encountered the compassion and mercy of God. Confessions are available each day at Chapel of Reconciliation. The Chapel is beautifully constructed on a low site, which is of symbolic significance as the descent into the chapel recalls the rite of Baptism. The building has only a single shaft of natural light coming down through the high roof of the centre, which makes the colourful mosaic a central focus of light, brightness and hope. This beautiful mosaic was designed by Sr. Angelica Ballan, Order of the Divine Master in Rome.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Pilgrims are encouraged to take part in Spiritual Direction which is available in the Chapel of Reconciliation. Spiritual direction is a space to talk about life and faith, joys and sorrows, to see how well we are living the love that God has given us. Often it involves turning faith into good decisions and choices.

IMOGEN STUART BEEHIVE MEDITATION CELL

Located in the Chapel of Reconciliation, the Beehive Meditation Cell was designed by renowned sculptor Imogen Stuart and made by the students of Moyne College, Ballina, Co. Mayo. Irish monks and hermits lived in cells like these from the 6th century onwards and they were usually built of stone. Spend some time in the cell and experience the peace and tranquility of the space.

The Story of KNOCK

Knock Shrine is a special place, unique in the world as a Eucharistic and Marian Shrine. The story of Knock began on the 21st of August 1879 when fifteen local people witnessed an Apparition of Our Lady, St. Joseph, St. John the Evangelist, an Altar, Cross and Lamb at the south gable of the Parish Church. This Apparition transformed Knock from a small rural village into what it is today: an international Shrine of prayer and pilgrimage.

Two Commissions of Enquiry, 1879 and 1936, found that the testimony of the witnesses was trustworthy and satisfactory. Every Pope since Pope Pius XII has recognised and honoured Knock in various ways, including the personal pilgrimage of Pope John Paul II in 1979 to commemorate the centenary of the Apparition and the visit of Pope Francis in 2018 for the World Meeting of Families.

Unique to the Apparition is the presence of the Lamb of God upon the altar, a visual representation of the gift and mystery of the Eucharist. This central element is not to be found in any other recognised Marian Apparition.

When you cross the threshold and enter Knock Shrine, you leave behind the worry and cares of a troubled world.

Whatever your reason for coming here, whether it be to experience peace and contemplation, to pray for a loved one, or simply as a passer-by, we hope that your visit will end with an answered prayer, a sense of healing, or a new perspective on whatever troubles you.
